8-9 July 50	Meeting of dockworkers, seamen and bargemen.	Hamburg, Germany	Dockworkers, seamen and bargemen of West Germany. Dockers from France, Belgium and Holland.	The conference adopted a plan to establish peace committees in every port and on every ship to spearhead the "struggle to prevent the USA from turning Western Germany into a Korea," where "women and children are being murdered in most terrible fashion and buried beneath the ruins of their homes". It called upon shipyard workers to establish peace committees and to "do everything to prevent recruitment". The conference formed a 32-man "Peace Committee of Dockers, Seamen and Bargeemen of Western Germany" with headquarters at 66 Bornstrasse Bremen. The conference appeal addressed to the German people reveals a plan to turn the dockers committees into espionage organizations to report on all movements of war materials. The committees are to have liaison with similar committees in France, Belgium, Holland, and Italy.
